CALL FIRE STATION --- SERVICE ONLY

One of the great annoyances in connection with a fire is the people who thoughtlessly call fire headquarters to learn the location of the blaze. The telephone there is for the protection of life and property and anyone calling for any other purpose causes the firemen to respond as though they were being called for service. Firemen are on duty at headquarters continuously and the line must be kept open for the chief. Information concerning the location of a fire can be ob tained by calling The Herald office.

WOMAN KILLED ON LAFAYETTE ROAD

MRS. FRANK LESTER MEETS DEATH WHILE PROTECTING COWS

Authorities Exonerate Driver of Car Owing to Slippery Condition of the Highway

While protecting her cows, Mrs. Georgie Lester, wife of Frank Lester of Lafayette Road, was instantly killed near her home on Wednesday afternoon, when struck by an automobile driven by Francis E. Wing of York Village, in which his brother, Albert E. Wing, was a passenger. Mrs. Lester took a stand in the highway with outstretched arms to warn autos while the cows were crossing the highway to her barn.

The automobile was moving about 20 miles an hour when the driver observed the woman. He reduced the speed as much as possible and would have avoided striking her but for condition of the road. Just as the car reached the place where she stood, it skidded. The rear of the car struck Mrs. Lester knocking her down with such force that her skull was fractured when her head came in contact with the paving and she died instantly. The driver hurried to the aid of the woman and carried her to her home. Dr. Taylor was summoned and a call also sent to Medical Referee Eastman, County Solicitor Waldron and Chief of Police Ducker. The officials made an investigation and interviewed people who noticed the speed of the car and the condition of the highway at the time. They allowed Mr. Wing to proceed as the accident was purely accidental.

The case is extremely a sad one for all parties concerned. Last week the mother of the Wing brothers died and the home of Francis B. Wing is quarantined with a sick daughter. At the time of the accident they were on their way to Haverhill for the purpose of bringing back Mr. Wing's mother-in-law to care for the home and sick daughter.

FIND MAN DEAD IN THE YARD

Thought to Be Charles N. Preston, An Artist, Living on Badger's Island in Kittery

The body of a man thought to be Charles N. Preston a resident of Badger's Island, Kittery, was found at 5 o'clock this morning in the yard of the old Nichols place in Mountainview, N. H. A watch on his person had stopped at 10.43 p. m. Wednesday. The medical referee of Carroll County states death was the result of heart failure. The sum of $105.20 was found in his pockets but nothing else that would lead to positive identification. Mr. Preston is an artist and has resided on Badger's Island for many years. It is known that he was subject to heart trouble. On Wednesday he left home for a trip in the north country where he frequently visits. At the same time Mrs. Preston left for Taunton, Mass., for a visit to her son and is still in that city. No one could be found around the Preston home up to noon today.

NEW TONG WAR IN NEW YORK

One Killed and Two Wounded as Hostilities Start in Chinatown

(By Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 9.—Emergency measures were adopted by the police today to prevent a recurrence of the shooting in Chinatown last night in which one Chinese was killed and two others wounded. The police believe the shooting was the beginning of a new tong war. Because of the threatening situation the number of police has been more than doubled. The first precautionary measures were taken a week ago when the first rumblings of trouble were heard among rival gangs of Chinese. Despite the precautionary measures, however, the gunman who killed his victim last night escaped. One Chinese was arrested in connection with the outbreak. The second victim of the shooting was a seaman. He was wounded when he failed to heed the policeman's command to halt. The wounded man is not expected to live. The sound of the policeman's shot apparently was taken by the Chinese in the neighborhood as a signal that tong warfare had started. Immediately volleys of shots from the doorways and alleys rang through the streets. A Chinese merchant was wounded.

Arthur J. Eagan of the Boston Herald was here today.

SENATORS IN FIGHTING MOOD

Ready to Do Battle in Sixth Game of Worlds Series Today

(By Associated Press)

Griffith Stadium, Washington, Oct. 9.—The Washington Senators, now facing heavy odds in their valiant fight for their first baseball championship, came back home today for the sixth battle of the 1924 worlds series. Despite two defeats in their three games at New York, the damaging loss of Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop, and the heartbreaking set back yesterday for their twirling ace, Walter Johnson, the Senators are still in a fighting mood. Victory today for the Giants who hold a three to two edge, will clinch McGraw's fourth diamond crown. Bucky Harris, fighting manager of the Senators is banking upon Zachary, and his slow southpaw curve to stop the Giants this afternoon. Art Nehf, southpaw star, who was kept out of yesterday's game because of a thumb bruise, was declared by Hughie Jennings to be in shape to take the mound today. The probable lineup for today:

Washington—McNeely cf, Harris 2b, Rice rf, Goslin lf, Judge 1b, Bleuge 3b, Peckinpaugh ss, Ruel c, Zachary p.

TO STUDY THE MYSTERIES OF RADIO AT SEA

Radio is coming to play a very important part in the plans of the conference on oceanography called by Secretary of the Navy Wilbur to outline a world-wide scientific study of the seven seas and the air above them. Among the many subjects under consideration by this conference, now in session in the hydrographic office in Washington, is the improvement of radio communication.

The radio personnel of the committee includes Dr. A. H. Taylor of the navy, Dr. Louis Cohen of the army signal corps, Dr. Austin of the bureau of standards, Capt. Ridley McLean, director of naval communications; Brig.-Gen. C. McK. Saltzman, chief signal officer, and Lt.-Col. C. A. Seaone, signal corps.

The naval hospital ship Solace, acquired during the Spanish-American war, will be designated by the navy as the cruising laboratory after she is recommissioned and equipped with the latest radio apparatus. The first cruise will probably start in July, 1925, and cover the Gulf-Carribean area; later cruises of the American scientists or their foreign associates being planned to cover all the waters and most of the parts of the world.

The chief aim of the scientists, as far as radio is concerned, is to reroute transoceanic radio traffic where atmospheric disturbances are found to be detrimental to direct transmission. For this reason one of the problems is to locate and chart centres of static disturbances, so that they may be avoided in setting up long-distances circuits. At the suggestion of Dr. Cohen a special investigation will be made of static centres both at sea and ashore. He has communicated with the American section of the International Union of Scientific Radio Telegraphy, requesting further co-operation in developing plans for collecting the data desired for the solution of radio traffic problems. It is understood that attention will be given to the study of intensities of radio signals from high-powered land stations when the Solace is at sea, and the co-operative efficiency of long and short wave transmissions. Although long wave lengths are used for distant transmission today, there is a tendency toward the use of short waves, which may be found more efficient and less expensive because of saving in power. This, Dr. Cohen points out, is an attractive field for experiment and may lead to the saving of millions in costs of operating long-distance stations.

When the Solace sails next summer, like the famous "Electra" of Marconi, she will carry the best known radio equipment from A to Z, and a modern sonic depth finding and ranging apparatus. She will be equipped for transmission and reception of radio waves through the air, the earth and water. The propagation of radio waves under the water will be a special problem to be worked out with the aid of some naval submarines. Even the transmission of radio impulses through the solid earth will be investigated, for scientists are anxious to ascertain whether radio waves pass through certain geological structures or around them. The projection of radio waves directionally by a process of focusing the transmitting antenna will also be studied in the desire to establish a radio beam, like that of a search light, in place of the ordinary spherical or broadcast method. The naval radio compass used over limited distances for finding directions and locating a vessel by aid of land stations, it is hoped can be improved and its range extended if a directional beam effect can be secured. Such an improvement to the radio compass might make it possible for vessels crossing the Atlantic to navigate solely with their aid, eliminating the use of astronomical observations.

The co-operation of the bureau of standards experts and other American scientific radio investigators is assured, as well as that of Sig. Marconi. Powerful radio stations, such as Nauen, Germany, and the Eiffel Tower in Paris will assist.

Closely allied to the radio is the sonic depth finder, which operates on sound waves. Dr. Harvey Hayes, inventor of the sonic depth finder, will have charge of sound operations on the Solace.

Once the vessel gets under way at sea, naval experts say, the public is assured of being kept posted on its activities and the interesting discoveries as they are made, for she will be equipped for broadcasting, and is expected to repairt daily on the progress of her investigations. Radio talks on various phases of the work by the several experts aboard may prove unique in the annals of radio broadcasting and of scientific investigations.

Field weather reports by radio will be made to the United States weather bureau for its information and for assistance in making forecasts.

Plans for the complete survey are being worked out in the hydrographic office under the direction of Capt. F. B. Bassett, president of the conference, assisted by Commander George E. Brandt, secretary-general, and the executive committee of that body.

ROYAL MOUNTED POLICE BRING IN THEIR MEN

Prince Rupert, B. C., Oct. 9—The end of a long, long trail which three members of the Royal Northwest mounted police have been following since early in June, and which has led them through more than 1000 miles of the untamed northland of Canada, where canoes and pack dogs were the only means of transportation, was almost in sight Tuesday when the three left here aboard the steamship Princess Alice for Vancouver with five Indian prisoners.

The Indians, said to be virtually savages, are charged with the murder of a 17-year-old Indian boy, whom other members of his tribe suspected of practicing witchcraft. According to the story told, the boy was hanged, head down, to drive out the evil spirits, and when this failed he was cut down and stoned to death. A young girl of the tribe, likewise suspected of witchery, is said to have been suspended for three days and nights by one foot and one hand, as a result of which she is crippled.

The prisoners subsist chiefly on meat, regarding bread with suspicion.

Two hilarious numbers. The first has unusual piano and saxophone rhythms; the second begins—and ends—to the choo-choo of a big locomotive.

The High school plays at Milford on Saturday. New Hampshire plays away from home and the only game of a local nature is that of Tilton Academy and Sanborn Seminary at Kittery.

There is a big demand for tickets for the Harvard-Dartmouth game on Oct. 25 and a big delegation from this city will attend.

Dartmouth has some schedule for the next four weeks, Vermont on Saturday, Yale the following Saturday, Harvard Oct. 28 and Brown Nov. 1. If Dartmouth goes through all these games with honors it is sure to get at least honorable mention from some of the sport writers.

LIEUT. BATES WINS IN 3D DIVISION

Lieut. Samuel Bates, U. S. N., won the third division in the Country Club golf championship by defeating Austin Goozins 5 and 3. This completes all the matches and there is only one more golfing event left for the season. This is the annual team match for club members which will probably be held on Saturday, Oct. 18, followed by the annual supper. A sweepstake handicap tournament may be held on Columbus day, as that is a general holiday.

The club has had a most successful season and, while no record is obtainable, there have been more players on the course this year than at any time since it was constructed 13 years ago. During the summer months it has been very congested, specially over the week ends and this has led to talk of either lengthing out the course or adding nine more holes.

SPEAKING ABOUT MILLIONAIRES

How many millionaires have we in America? One estimate was that the war created more than 27,000 new millionaires and multis. People you never heard of die worth fabulous sums—one woman 12 millions, a man 40 millions. How many will we have eventually? The entire national wealth of America is enough to make only about 500,000 millionaires.

That isn't many, in a population of 114 million people or more.

KITTERY

Kittery, Oct. 9—Fire Prevention Week. Fire takes 15,000 lives a year. 75 per cent of these are sacrificed by carelessness. Learn carefulness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Woods, family and party motored to Bretton Woods on Sunday. On the return trip they climbed Mt. Kearsarge at North Conway. The view from there is better, than at Mt. Washington, though the latter is 3000 feet higher. There was a great deal of travel, plenty of water in the brooks and the foliage very pretty. The roads are good and free from dust except far above Berlin and through Dixville Notch, it being very dusty there.

AUTO RACES AT DOVER MONDAY

Auto racers all over New England will congregate at Granite State Park on Monday, Columbus Day, to compete in the racing carnival to be held on the fast one mile track on that date.

Some of the best professionals in the business have signified their intention of entering the auto and motor cycle races. Such men as Dare Devil Foster, Jack White and Demars will be seen driving racing cars along with "Ted" Moran, the champion motor cyclist of New England.

The feature event closing the afternoon's racing, will be a match affair between the winners of the 10 mile professional solo (open) race for motor cycles and the 10 mile professional non-stock autos. This race will be for 10 miles and is expected to be a hair-raiser.

The mile track is in the very best of condition for fast work and with the high class entries booked it is practically assured that many records will be broken.

The Aero Motorcycle Club of this city will attend the races in a body, about 20 members making the trip on motorcycles. With weather conditions right there should be a big crowd in attendance.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

The mystery of the disappearance over a period of 13 years of the more than 1,000 metal objects from the home of a 1-year-old Saginaw, Mich., girl has been solved through an operation which disclosed that she swallowed them.

Her identity has been kept secret. Physicians removed from her stomach a mass of metal that weighed 62 ounces. The girl had suffered from numerous attacks of nausea and was thin and emaciated.

Among the objects found were eight sewing machine bobbins and parts of 48 others, five crucifixes and three medallions, three watch chains, coins worth $9.74, numerous pins, a lavellier and a long gold chain, and a mass of other small objects.—Capper's Weekly.

Metropolitan Rudeness

A visitor to New York, writing an indignant letter to the World, says:

"The people of this city lack courtesy to and consideration for others. Never in my life of over half a century have I seen such complete disregard of others. Travel at its peak on the subway, elevated lines, Staten Island ferry-boats and at street crossings makes them dangerous for those who are frail in health, crippled or with poor eyesight. Women stand little chance in this mad rush. Trains are less than a minute apart, so time saved is negligible. Nevertheless, these crowds seem each for himself and 'the devil take the hindmost.' No army of guards can hope to control an element of this sort in getting on or off trains, on stairs or in passageways. Cannot something be done to create some little thought of others in the minds of all the people?"

It is a familiar plaint, though expressed with unusual vigor. There is unquestionably a great deal of truth in it. The visitor, to be sure, overlooks the real kindliness and courtesy which are found among the metropolitan population as among others, if the seeker looks deeper, or becomes better acquainted. But the casual contacts of a stranger in the big city, or of its own millions with each other, do reveal strangely little that is kindly, generous and humane. A great, highly civilized community belies its culture in public, whatever it may do in private.

And New York is not an extreme example in this respect. Chicago, in its public elbow-rubbing, is generally admitted to be worse—not because the residents are any harder hearted or less civilized, but because they are more in a hurry and more intent on what they are doing. Almost any stranger in Chicago is amazed at first, at the way he is bumped into and banged around on sidewalks and in stores and elevated cars. The jostling is purely impersonal, but none the more pleasant for that reason.

It seems as if such treatment is inseparable from metropolitan life, at least in this country. For genuine courtesy, ease and pleasantness in getting around among one's fellow citizens—in short, for civilization manifested in public as well as in private—there is nothing like a small city.

Intriguing Latin-America

Brazil, according to one coutryman, who is in the United States on a visit, is a land of intrigue. Revolutions spring up suddenly and overnight and take the populace completely by surprise. In Brazil the air is sweet and pure and brilliant flowers adorn Brazilian hills.

The description is replete with splendid phrases which almost make one wish he could pack up belongings and live in Brazil. "A land of intrigue," he says. Intriguing what? Intriguing revolutionosts or intriguing flower pots and flower gardens which beckon from the purple distances? Doubtless both.

The description might be carried on ad infinitum. For instance, Honduras might be called an intriguing country. Everybody and everything seems busy with intrigues. General Fonseca is on the march and Cholutec is trembling, Honduran roses are in full bloom. In intriguing Mexico a Britisher was disposed of for motives not robbery. In Ecuador, intriguing Ecuador where palm trees line deep blue lagoons, the country is beset with strikes. All through Latin-America the air fairly bristles with pureness and sweetness and revolution. It is an intriguing district, just as Brazil is an intriguing country.

But despite these allurements, it is unlikely there will be a grand exodus south. Florida most likely will be the southermost objective of American tourists. Despite the pretty flower beds and palm lined lagoons, America is intriguing enough to warrant staying at home.

The Library as School

A public library is no longer regarded as a place merely for the storage of books. Neither does it content itself simply with doling out books as they are specifically requested. Instead, the present day librarian sees the building in which he works as the "warehouse and market exchange for all permanently important or temporarily useful information that a given community may find to its advantage."

The librarian tries to give the reader everything he wants; he tries to stimulate the non-reader to take up reading, and he tries to act as helpful counselor to the would-be reader who doesn't know where to begin. Today trained library workers know how to find information for readers, they know who are specialists in certain lines and the value of the information contained in a book.

Trade, business, music, architecture, building and many other "practical" subjects may be studied quite successfully by the citizen because the librarian can point the way to go about it. School children in communities so fortunate as to have a good public library are using that institution more and more to supplement their school work, and their parents are finding the library an indispensable aid in exploring their respective fields of interest or business. The library should be recognized as an important factor in public education.

TOPICS FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, Oct. 9. Washington, the staid, conservative city of lawmakers, high government officials and dignified diplomats, is neither staid or dignified these days and the only Senators receiving consideration these days are those under the expert management of Bucky Harris of the American League pennant winners.

The hammering of a trio of New York hurlers, upsetting the dope of all the metropolitan experts and inflicting a 7 to 4 drubbing on the Giants, warrants more discussion and is of greater moment than any of the affairs of state, or political campangn. The U. S. S. Shenandoah, our greatest airship, as it passed over the city merited only a passing glance from the thousands of fans as they watched the progress of the griffmen at the many scoreboards in the downtown section.

However, the present baseball frenzy is only transient and will give way in an incredibly short time, once the series is over, to the political race which has now but a little over four weeks to run.

All three party headquarters are hard at work receiving reports from field scouts, planning rush campaigns in debateable areas and trying to get the meaning of "trends." Party managers seem to sense the situation today as an election of Coolidge by the Electoral College or an election of the next President by Congress. Such an election, causing the choosing of a President from the people's choice of from two to six years ago, and which would likely be, in no sense the will of the people November 4, 1924.

President Coolidge in a statement today does not seem worried over this possibility, however, as he expressed himself as being perfectly satisfied with the manner in which the campaign has been carried on thus far, and that the progress made in his estimation is very commendable.

The fact that lack of funds may curtail the efficiency of the Republican campaign, however, does call forth the suggestion from him that, to effect a sufficient organization to win in November there must be sufficient funds. He cautions the Republicans not to feel so certain of the outcome in November as to allow any slacking of their efforts.

A large majority of the senators and representatives have left the Capitol to conduct their own campaigns or to work for the National ticket in their home states or critical areas. Senator Moses, at present in Chicago assisting in the direction of the Republican campaign in the West, advises that he plans to spend the last ten days before election in New Hampshire.

The Supreme court has started its regular fall term with an ever-increasing docket and on its first day abandoned its regular custom of adjourning early to call upon the President to pay its respects, postponing its visit until later in the day.

On the whole Washington bids fair to hold the public eye even after the World Series is over.

FIRE CAUSED DISCUSSION

The West End district was much alive soon after the alarm sounded. It is not often that this district is visited by a fire and the people living near the scene of the blaze were quickly out of their beds, dressed and on their way to lend help or watch the flames as they leaped high into the air. The crowd gathered quickly and in less than 10 minutes the burning stable was surrounded by spectators

The flames made a brilliant spectacle with the background of trees and shrubbery and illuminated the entire Walker property. Talk among the onlookers ran rife regarding the cause of the fire, who sent in the alarm, why the lack of water and other questions equally as hard to answer. At any rate the firemen worked hard and fast and there is no doubt that Chief Woods and the firemen did everthing in their power to save the building.

The chief topic of discussion throughout the city this morning was the seeming delay in getting the fire under control and it was the general belief that there was something wrong with the water pressure. This was denied by Chief Woods who said, as before stated, that the chief trouble was caused by a piece from the hose jacket getting into the hose line from the pump.

Mayor Orel A. Dexter said that, while there seemed to be a great deal of talk about the fire, in his understanding, after a thorough investigation, he was convinced that the pressure was regular and sufficient and that the trouble was caused by the hose getting plugged with a piece of jacket.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Writes About the Fire

Editor of The Herald:

As an eye-witness to the fire on Middle street this morning I cannot understand why quicker work was not made. The firemen were prompt enough but there seemed to be some trouble with the apparatus.

COMMITTAL SERVICE HERE

The remains of Rev. James DeNormandie, D. D., were cremated and the ashes brought to this city today, the burial being private. Rev. Alfred Gooding, minister emeritus, and Rev. William Safford Jones, minister of the South Unitarian Church, had charge of the committal service.

ARMY AIRMEN VISIT CITY

Capt. L. R. Knight, air service officer for the First Corps Area, and Lieut. Crowley, arrived here this noon in their airplane, making a pretty flight and landing near the Portsmouth Country club. It was planned to have them land at the Winchester Farm, and the members of the Chamber of Commerce aviation committee were at that point to greet them. But after circling about the Winchester farm the aviators decided to seek a different landing place and came to the earth on the Silverman place near the Country Club.

This noon Capt. Knight spoke before the Rotary Club at the luncheon at the Hotel Rockingham. He dwelt upon the necessity of having an aviation in Portsmouth which could be used as a landing field and also as a place for training. He gave an interesting account of the growth and development of aviation. Rufus E. Ross presided at the meeting.

THE HERALD HEARS

That the Portsmouth delegation added some dignity to the Acton Fair on Wednesday.

That there is some LaFollette talk among local Boston and Maine employes.

That a Concord man claims to have the largest potatoes in New Hampshire. Now comes a Maine man with the largest cucumber.

That O. S. Frost of Kennebunk has on exhibition a cuke of the long green variety 13 inches long and almost as big in circumference.

That among the many local political rumors is that which names a well known member of the P. A. C. as a likely Republican candidate for mayor.

That several of the people who gathered up what they decided is ambergris at York Beach are still holding onto their find.

That regardless of the reported analysis they believe they have the real stuff and are awaiting further developments.

That a sample is said to have been sent to the leading chemist at New Hampshire University following the one that went to Harvard.

That the Kittery fire alarm was sounded on Wednesday evening and more than one fireman grabbed his coat exclaiming "Another lost boy."

That it was neither a lost boy or a fire but a fire drill.

That one politician running for office says his platform is like the old fashioned hoopskirt: it covers everything and touches nothing.

That he hammered his opponent's platform saying it was like a modern dress; it touches everything and covers nothing.

That this month is the warmest October since 1912.

That this year will see the last of some of the old silent policemen.

That a doctor recently told a friend of a letter he received which read like this: Dear Doctor—Your medicine did me a world of good. Before I started taking the medicine I didn't have strength enough to spank the baby, but now I can whip my husband. God bless you.

That the doctor's friend must be getting some strong stuff somewhere.

PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Mary M. McDonald and Arthur F. Thomson Married at Catholic Church

The marriage of Miss Mary Magdalene McDonald and Arthur Francis Thomson both of this city, took place this morning at seven-fifteen o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. Father Sullivan performing the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride looked very attractive in a gown of salmon colored crepe de chine with gold lace trimmings and hat of same shade. Her bouquet was of white roses.

She was attended by Miss Mary McInnis, who wore brown embroidered georgette with hat of brown shade. The best man was William Thomson, a brother of the groom.

A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick McDonald of Pine street at which about fifty relatives and friends were present. The newly married couple received the heartiest felicitations of the assembled company and music and delightful sociability added interest to the wedding festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson left later for a wedding trip to New York, Niagara Falls and other points of interest. Upon their return they will reside at 7 Bridge street, Kittery Depot. The bride's going away gown was of tan shade, worn with a fur collar and sport hat.

Both bride and groom are popular with hosts of friends. The groom has a position in the men's furnishing store of John G. Parsons on Congress street. They received many beautiful wedding gifts and that their future may be as bright as their wedding day is the wish of all who know them intimately.

Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. William Denis, Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lawrence, Framingham, Mass.; Josephine and Leonora McDonald of Gloucester, Mass.

MUCH BUSINESS BY BOOMA POST

All ex-service men are cordially invited to attend along with the members. A big time is planned for this occasion and arrangements are being made to entertain them all and give a real old time get-together smoker.

Plans were also discussed regarding the Armistice Ball Nov. 11. This annual affair bids fair to eclipse all previous efforts by the post. The winter promises to be a busy one with the post and committees kept busy from now on.

The Well-Dressed Man of King Tut's time!

In Tutankhamen's time the modish dress for men consisted of the upper shirt, an underskirt of thin material reaching below the calves, a short outer skirt, deeply pleated, in front, and a girdle with long ends hanging below the edge of the outer skirt. The upper garment was tucked in under the girdle. The costume was sometimes augmented by a short shawl or mantle wrapped tightly around the shoulders and pinned together in front with a jeweled buckle.

HANDTUB THROWS 190 FEET AGAINST WIND

Veterans Give Eureka Final Test Before Battle on Monday

The strong-armed force of the veteran firemen were on the brakes of the handtub Eureka Wednesday evening for the last time before the machine goes on the firing line at the Newburyport muster on Monday next. They did some good work and the measurement showed the stream had covered 190 feet against a strong wind. The boys are all in excellent spirits and the other 20 or more machines that are to meet in the playout will be well aware of the fact that they have been up against a real peppery crew when the Eureka gets through on the playing stand.

BRITISH LABOR CABINET FALLS

Issue of Communist Inquiry Results in Defeat By 364 to 198

(By Associated Press)

London, Oct. 9.—Great Britain's first Labor Government which began in January, virtually came to an end at 11 o'clock last night, when by a combination of Conservative and Liberal votes the House of Commons carried a motion demanding that a select committee of the House investigate the action of the Attorney General, Sir Patrick Hastings, in withdrawing prosecution in the case of the Communist James R. Campbell, acting editor of the Workers' Weekly, charged with inciting His Majesty's forces to sedition.

The Government declined to accept the motion, and treated it as a vote of censure, which, if adopted by the House, would involve an appeal to the country against Parliament's verdict.

The debate was sharp and exciting. The opposition wanted to drop Sir Robert S. Horne's motion of censure and vote on Sir John A. Simon's amendment calling for an investigation.

On the Government's refusal to accept this course, the House divided on the question as to which it should vote on. By a vote of 359 to 198 it defeated the motion and the amendment became the substantive motion, and was carried 364 to 198.

Announcement of the figures was received with loud cheering and counter cheering. The Prime Minister, Ramsay MacDonald, immediately arose and said:

"In view of what has happened, Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn."

This was agreed to unanimously. The Premier will see the King today and ask for dissolution of Parliament.

JOHNSON UNABLE TO STOP GIANTS

(By Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 9—Walter Johnson the "old master" bukkled on his armor yesterday in a final fight for the glory of a world's series that he has sought for 18 years, but fate, it seemed and the mighty bats of his foe, turned him back.

Unlashing a furious, ruthless attack, the New York Giants battered the great veteran into defeat for the second straight time, captured the fifth game of the series from the Senators by a score of 6 to 2 and left last night for Washington with the 1924 world's championship within their reach.

The Giants, coming back with the powerful type of attack that carried the Senators to triumph on Tuesday, now hold a formidable edge of three to two games. They need but one more victory to clinch th eseries and give their leader, John Magraw, his fourth baseball crown an da new major league record.

The forces of McGraw, who shares the present record of three world's series victories with Connie Mack and the Athletics are heavy favorites tonight to carry off the major honors in one of the game's spectacular battles, for yesterday they spiked Washington's big gun and left the senators with shattered resources for the rest of the fight.

If Art Nehf, McGraw's brilliant southpaw, who was prevented from starting yesterday's game by a thumb bruise, sustained in his victory over Johnson on the opening day, is able to take the mound today, the Giants will have an excellent prospect of ending the series. If not, or if Nehf fails, the decision will go to the seventh game, which will also be played in Washington.

Through the smoke of yesterday's conflict Johnson stood out as a gallant but tragic figure, one of the most tragic baseball has ever known. Another outpouring of 50,000 fans, braving the chilliest day of the series, came chiefly in the hope of seeing Johnson hang up his first world's series victory. Their sympathies, which have been with the Senators through the New York games of the series, were particularly evident for Johnson. They cheered him to the echo in the early part of the game, but as it wore on and Johnson's defeat became inevitable they became quieter, realizing that "Big Barney," one of the game's greatest idols was taking the bitterest setback of his career.

Johnson tok the punishment being administered by the Giants' bats grimly, but it was a sad spectacle to those who recalled his greatness over nearly a score of years and his valiant struggle to reach the door that refused to open to him, when he knocked.

Yet probably no one realized the tragedy of it any more keenly than Johnson himself, when after "Goose" Goslin's third home run of the series had revived Washington's hopes in the eighth inning, the Giants bombarded the veteran for three more runs and removed the last uncertainty over the outcome.

STEIZES SLOOP AND ALCOHOL

Santos, Joseph A. Duffy, both of New Bedford, Joseph Sullivan of Providence and Harry Conley of Dorchester were arrested yesterday morning by Federal prohibition agent Jeremiah Sullivan when he boarded the sloop Crescent loaded with 1800 gallons of alcohol, about 50 yards off Wigwam Beach, Sconticut Neck, East Fairhaven.

Four automobiles, abandoned on the shore also were seized by agent Sullivan who was accompanied only by his chauffeur, Herbert Carrier.

The occupants of the automobiles, from the sloop, numbered 15 men, according to agent Sullivan. These escaped in the darkness. As they fled, several of the men opened fire. Sullivan without making any attempt to return the fire, rowed to the sloop and managed to get aboard by posing as a member of the shore party.

He found four men weighing anchor preparatory to getting under way. He placed them under arrest and rowed ashore.

STUDENTS ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF BREAK

Portland, Oct. 9.—The arrest of Robert Hurd, 18, a student at Bridgton academy, is believed to clear up a break into the Ward & Slattery garage at West Minot 10 days ago, for Hurd is said to have admitted the burglary and to have implicated Richard Sosa, a 19 year old South American student at Hebron academy.

Sosa was arrested at Hebron by officials of Androscoggin county, who found a quantity of stolen goods in his room at the school. He claimed the property was given him by Hurd in payment of a debt, and denied knowledge of the break.

Hurd, who came to Bridgton from Bermuda, and who formerly resided in New Hampshire with his father, a school teacher, has directed authorities to the hiding place of the rest of the hardware and tires taken from the garage, amounting to about $200 worth. He has been held for the grand jury of Cumberland county for receiving stolen goods, and was yesterday turned over here to a deputy from Minot.

BAPTISTS CLOSE ANNUAL SESSION

Rev. Dr. Goodell of Antrim is Named as Convention President

Dover, Oct. 9.—Evangelization as the best way for saving the world from the "sin" of war was the keynote of the resolution on war unanimously adopted by the United Baptist convention of New Hampshire, which concluded a three-day session here last night.

Another resolution expressed regret over the absence of Rev. Joseph H. Robbins, who recently retired from the superintendency of the New Hampshire Anti-Saloon League, and commended the appointment, announced yesterday, of Rev. Jonathan S. Lewis as his successor.

During the morning session the speakers were Rev. J. W. Rafter of Manchester, Rev. W. G. Hubbard of Meriden, Rev. H. R. Whitlock of Manchester, Rev. W. Cortland Myers of Concord and Rev. Charles P. MacGregory of Manchester. The annual sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Harris of Warner.

These convention officers and committees were elected: Rev. R. C. Goodell, Antrim, president; Charles W. Tobey, Manchester, Rev. A. J. Archibald, Nashua, vice presidents; Rev. D. S. Jenks, Manchester, general secretary; Lewis E. Staples, Portsmouth, treasurer; Rev. George Holbrook, Manchester, trustee emeritus.

The committee on education includes H. Leslie Sawyer, Rev. Wesley A. Paige, Rev. E. W. Churchill, Rev. J. K. Romeyn, Rev. F. W. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Blanche W. Wellman. New trustees of the anti-Saloon League are Rev. W. H. Getchell, Rev. R. H. Tibbetts and Rev. W. P. Robinson and trustees of the New Hampshire Sunday School Asociation, Rev. Chas. P. MacGregor and Rev. Thomas J. Cate.

ADVENTISTS AT ODDS OVER WOMAN PASTOR

Manchester, Oct. 9.—Taking the stand that "home life is being broken down because women are losing sight of their calling," a petition for the ordination of a woman to the ministry was refused at the opening session of the 71st annual conference here of the New Hampshire Adventists. It was passed for three years. Two motions quickly came, one from the ministerial committee, refusing to grant the petition, and another in favor of it. Members of the conference for nearly 30 years lined up against each other in the arguments that followed, bringing the meeting to the verge of confusion.

Rev. Linden J. Carter, pastor of the Bethel Advent, took a vigorous stand against the ordination of women. He said that there were principles in the Testament that had to be lived up to.

"Home life is being broken down because women are losing their calling," he said. "We wonder where the children are. The mother isn't at home, she is some place giving a lecture."

The conference finally voted by a majority of approximately 40 to ordain Mrs. Glazier. She was ordained last evening, as was Albert W. Wentworth.

Liver Trouble Causes High Blood Pressure

Medical science knows that poisonous waste in our bodies would actually cause death in a few days if not eliminated by Nature's processes. Because it destroys these deadly poisons, the liver is our most important organ—the body's wonderful purifier.

The liver prevents the formation of body poisons that cause diseases of the heart, kidneys, blood vessels and are chiefly responsible for premature old age.

When the liver becomes weak, the poisons are sucked up by the blood and health is broken down. Physicians know that the liver cannot be regulated by drugs, but a safe Nature substance has been discovered which will at once increase the vital bile supply. The discovery is purified ox gall.

Get from your druggist a package of Dioxol. Each tablet contains ten drops of purified ox gall. In 24 hours the poison toxins will be removed. Your liver will be regulated. Blood purification will begin. Sallow skin will clear. You will feel so much better you will know you have found the cause of your ill health. Dioxol tablets are harmless, tasteless and cost less than two cents each.

These genuine ox gall tablets are prepared only under the name "Dioxol." If any tablet is offered you under another name, refuse it. Accept only Dioxol in the original, genuine package.

Dioxol is especially recommended at Boardman & Norton's.

DEATH, SAYS BISHOP HUGHES, FOR CLERGY WHO VIOLATE HOMES

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes said at the Rock River conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

"I am not declaring my position on the general subject of capital punishment, but if any person deserves to be hanged it is a minister who would use his position as a cloak to violate the purity of a home."

Bishop Hughes was addressing the class of 27 young men who were ordained. He pointed to the credentials which he was about to hand to the ministers and, speaking with much feeling said:

"There have been some ministers recently who have stained their credentials with tears and some who have stained them with blood. I beg of you keep yours clean."

SAYS HOULTON JAIL IS BAD

Augusta, Me.—According to the report of Secretary Grube B. Cornish, of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, the jail at Houlton is in need of many changes. Mr. Cornish reports that he found 53 prisoners herded together in accommodations built for 32 men, and a particularly bad feature was the presence of a 15 year old boy, bound over to the November term of court, who was closely associated with the older men. There is no employment in the prison, and the men are fed in their cells, where they have kept food until the flies have become a menace to sanitary conditions.

Secretary Cornish reports that the other institutions of Aroostook county, where he has been making his annual inspections, are very good.

FIRES CAUSE HEAVY LOSSES

Washington, Oct. 9—An average of 41 deaths and the destruction of property valued at $1,370,000 is the daily toll taken by fire in the United States.

The annual property loss due to fire would pay one-half the interest on the public debt or maintain the Army and Navy.

It is the equivalent of the total yearly production of gold, silver, iron and copper in the United States.

It would pay for the erection of 2,300 hospitals costing $200,000 each.

To reduce fire hazards the Chamber of Commerce has formulated some simple rules for general observance. They are:

"All electrical wiring should be inspected and approved before use. Care should be taken in handling electrical heating devices.

"All gas lights or open flames should be kept away from woodwork and other combustible materials.

"An electric flashlight should be used in looking for gas leaks.

"Matches should be handled carefully and properly disposed of when extinguished. They should be kept in a metal coontainer inaccessible to children.

"Gasoline, benzine and kerosene should not be used to start fires. If used for cleaning the work should be done out of doors.

"Chimneys and flues should be inspected, cleaned and repaired before winter. Hot ashes should be placed in metal cans.

"All refuse should be promptly collected and removed. Good housekeeping is a valuable ally of fire prevention.

"Every citizen should realize that large fires usually are small at the beginning. He should, therefore, use every precaution to prevent them. They might not only destroy his own property but cause loss and suffering to others."

QUEER STORIES BY TRAVELERS OF OLD

The stories that travelers in strange lands were accustomed to tell on their return home, once fully believed, came to be so completely discredited that a "traveler's tale" afterward meant nothing but a fantastic and impudent invention.

For later travelers, seeking the marvels they had been told of and not finding them, very soon discredited the yarns of their predecessors.

We have in this case a choice of whether those returning explosives consciously told untruths and gave false descriptions, or whether, in the excitements, dangers and fatigues of olden exploration, they did not, in fact, get sufficiently near to what they saw. It is possible that in some cases they honestly believed their own tales.

Let us take the case of the unicorn. No one ever saw such an animal as that pictured on the British royal arms, because there is no such creature outside the realms of heraldry. But the belief in the unicorn dates back to ancient Roman times. It is perhaps, the very oldest of mythical animals.

Yet the traveler who returned and told that tale of the unicorn really saw something. It was a rhinoceros.

The fantastic yarn of the Barnacle geese, although not so ancient a fiction, is a more marvelous one. The Barnacle goose is a migrating bird and comes and goes like the swallow, with the seasons. These habits of the birds were not understood in times of old and people were puzzled by the sudden appearance of wild geese that were not known to nest anywhere.

When puzzled and at a loss for explanation our ancestors generally invented a legend. In this case they invented several legends. The best believed of these found its way into a book published in 1605 with a picture showing that Barnacle geese grew on trees.

Another version had it that they were hatched from the barnacles that cluster on ships or old timber washed up by the sea. The origin of this is to be found in the white substance, not unlike down or feathers, which at times projects from the shell of the barnacle. But all attempts to hatch out a brood of geese from these creatures failed, and hopeful geese breeders remained as puzzled as ever.

When travelers in strange climes first saw the cotton plant and its pods full of a wooly substance, they were struck with amazement. They brought home specimens of the pods and at once the weird legend of the "Borometz" or vegetable lamb, was started. In this case it is due to the travelers to say that it was not they, but he imaginative people at home who invented the story of lambs who grew like plants.

This vegetable lamb is serious described and illustrated in two books, published respectively 1605 and 1629. The illustration shows a very plump lamb growing on a stem and contentedly feeding on a plant that grows conveniently near its mouth.

And it is not now believed, as once it was, that the best way to frighten off a lion is to stand and make ugly faces at him. Still, it might be so, had any one the courage to try the experiment.—London Answers.

Portland, Oct. 9.—An estate of $1,350,000 of which all but $25,000 is personal property, was left by Leon C. Spaulding of Buffalo and East Sebago, according to a petition for administration filed in probate court yesterday. Heirs are his widow, two brothers, Huntley and Roland of Rochester, N. H., and a sister, Marion S. Potter of New York. Mr. Spaulding died Sept. 11 at his summer home at East Sebago.

MATCH CORBREY AND DESAUTEL

Eddie Desautel of Dover has been matched with Tommie Corbrey of Gloucester for a ten round bout in this city on Oct. 16. This will be the toughest assignment that has been laid out for the Dover whirlwind, for in Corbrey he meets a lad who has a great deal of experience and who is capable of holding his own with some of the best boys of his weight in the country.

Corbrey some time ago fought Joe St. Helaire in this city and the Somersworth lad got the decision although Corbrey was with him at the end and just as fresh. He is a much older boxer than the Dover lad and knows every angle of the game. He can stand any punishment that Desautel can inflict and is himself a hard hitter, so that the Dover lad will have to show a lot of improvement over his last appearance to even get a draw.

The rest of the card will include Soldier Turcotte and some lad of his own weight and at least two good preliminaries.

MAKES FAT PEOPLE SLIM

The loss of as much as a pound of excess fat a day with no harmful results is the record made by many patients of Dr. R. Newman, a licensed practicing physician of 286 Fifth Avenue, New York, who announces that he has perfected a treatment which has quickly rid fat people of excess weight. What is more remarkable is the Doctor's statement that he has successfully treated thousands of patients for fat reduction without change of diet or unnecessary exercise. It is also said that fat people who suffer from chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma and high blood pressure obtain great relief from the reduction of their superfluous flesh. Realizing that this sounds almost too good to be true, the Doctor has offered to send without charge to anyone who will write him, a free trial treatment to prove his claims, as well as his "Pay-when-reduced" plan. If you want to rid yourself of superfluous fat, write him today, addressing Dr. R. Newman, 286 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Dept. R. 1t o9

KEEP AWAY FROM FIRE ENGINES

As a warning to motorists the Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce has issued a statement reminding them that they can best observe Fire Prevention Week by keeping as far away from fires as possible.

"Curiosity," says the statement, "impels many drivers to trail the fire engines or, sometimes, to beat them to the scene of the fire. This is not only dangerous to the motorists but renders the tasks of the firemen more difficult. In many cities collision have occurred between fire trucks and automobiles whose drivers tried to get to the fire first.

"The firemen may be relied upon to do their best to extinguish a fire as quickly as possible. Every second counts. Frequently many seconds are lost because of the curious motorists crowding the streets. The insurance department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States has called our attention to a recent large fire in Washington at which the chief of the fire department was forced to leave his car three blocks from the burning building because of the people and automobiles that blocked his way.

"The duty of motorists is obvious. When you hear the warning from the fire trucks draw up to the curb and let them pass. Don't trail the trucks. Don't go to the fire. Keep away from it and give the firemen a clear field. No one knows whether the fire will be confined to one building or cover the entire block. In either case you will be in the way. In many cases the extent of the loss will depend largely upon your co-operation. And it might be your building that is threatened or is burning."

EXETER SQUAD IN GOOD CONDITION

Exeter, Oct. 9.—Exeter's football squad is in good condition physically for the Yale freshmen game Saturday. Although a hard scrimmage between the first and second elevens will take place today no chances of injuring the players will be taken. Dewing has recovered from his injuries and will probably start at guard in the Yale game.

The need of an assistant coach is felt daily as the season advances and the line work is now falling to "Sim" Murch, who had charge of the forwards yesterday. He gave them a long drill at the tackling dummy and the charging machine while Coach Blake worked with the backs and ends in going down the field under punts.

Batchelder, Fitts, O'Donnell and Carver did the punting and the ends were French, Downey, Swede, Luman, and Capt. O'Connell, Washburn, Wright was worked at center in passing the ball, while Lanzillo was kept at the tackling dummy.

Collett and Acker look good in the backfield and they were given the first choice in replacement for the Dartmouth game, both getting into the game in the second half. Collett is a Maine boy, coming from Brewer, and Acker is from New York. Coach Blake however is clinging to the original lineup and the regulars are showing up well.

Here is a cereal you'll really like because it is delicious and different—fresher somehow and more delicate perhaps. Yet it is one of the healthiest of many cereal foods. Try it with cream or top o' the bottle. There will be no all-gone feeling in mid-morning.

COOLIDGE ASKS FACTS ON SUGAR

Washington, Oct. 7.—Additional information from the tariff commission on the costs of sugar production in this country and in Cuba was requested today by President Coolidge in connection with his study of the commission's report favoring a reduction in the present sugar duty.

The president has told those interested that he proposes to protect the American sugar beet industry from the possibility of any combination which might develop in Cuba or elsewhere with a view to controlling sugar prices. A report also has been requested from the department of agriculture on sugar beet farming in this country.

Cash Runs Low.

Referring today to the proposed commission on agriculture, Mr. Coolidge told visitors he wished to confer with two or three other farm leaders before selecting the personnel of the body. He feels there is no demand for haste in naming the commission, for he believes agriculture has regained its feet.

So far as the political campaign is concerned, the president feels the big need is for organization to get out the vote. Unless a large vote is polled, in the opinion of Mr. Coolidge, the sentiment of the country will not be properly registered.

Reports reaching the White House today indicate a shortage in funds of the Republican national committee. Francis B. Loomis of San Francisco told the president that the Republican party was gaining strength in California.

PAINTER GOT $21.50 A DAY.—HAD NO TIME TO GO TO COURT

New York.—Frank McCabe, a painter, told Magistrate Goodman in West Side Court that he earned $21.50 a day and that it would be a costly procedure for him to lose time from his job to appear in court several times to press a charge of assault he made against James T. Brennan, an I. R. T. employee. McCabe asked the magistrate to dismiss the charge. Brennan was released, but not until the magistrate had questioned McCabe about his job.

"You get more money a day than I do," said the magistrate.

"That's your hard luck," replied McCabe.

"DUTCH" CONNORS RETURNS TO GAME

Durham.—Students at the University of New Hampshire are watching with much interest the work of Dutch Connors, former Blue and White foot ball star who is now a member of the Providence Steamrollers. Connors will be seen in action against Pere Marquette in Boston Saturday.

The return of the New Hampshire idol to football is pleasing to the New Hampshire fans who have watched him in action. As a football player it is generally believed that he has had no equal at this institution. Many sport writers and coaches who saw Connors in action as a member of the Blue and White elevens stated that doubtless he would have been named on the All American eleven if he had attended a larger institution where his ability would have been more conspicuous.

While at New Hampshire Connors won 'varsity letters in football, baseball and track. In spite of being an all around athlete, football was considered his particular sport. After playing in the backfield for three years he was elected to lead the 1921 outfit which made the best record ever attributed to a Cowell-coached team, defeating West Point and later Holy Cross. In both games the work of Connors was prominent, he having made many gains through the line and kicking goals from the field.

COOLIDGE URGES GETTING OUT VOTE

Washington, Oct. 9—Republican party efforts should be directed, in the opinion of President Coolidge, toward getting out the vote at this election. He has told party leaders that organization should be directed to this end that the true sentiment of the nation may be registered in November.

Reports reaching the White House indicated a shortage of funds, it was said, but the President expressed satisfaction over the trend of the campaign.

Turning his attention to government business almost exclusively, Mr. Coolidge directed the tariff commission to prepare additional data in regard to its report favoring a cut in the sugar duty and submit figures comparing the costs of sugar production in Cuba and this country.

The President made it clear that in reaching a decision on the sugar duty he would insist on protecting the sugar beet industry of this country from any combinations which might arise in Cuba or elsewhere with the purpose of controlling sugar prices.

WOMEN ESCAPE DEATH IN RIVER

Keene, Oct. 9—Mrs. William H. Emery and three other Keene women had a miraculous escape from being drowned last night when the automobile, said to be operated by Mrs. Emery, left the highway and plunged into the Ashuelot river, between Winchester and Ashuelot. Mrs. Emery and one other was taken to the Elliott Community hospital.

It is reported that the steering gear on the machine broke. The car was badly damaged.

TAX ON GAS HELPS HIGHWAY PROGRAM

Concord, Oct. 9—More fall work is now in progress than ever before in the history of the State Highway department, according to statements made by officers of the department. The last of the field crews will not be called in before the snow begin to fly in earnest and it is hoped that work will be possible for another month or six week.

Money coming from the tax on gasoline has made it possible to resume activities on many jobs that had long been lying dormant and benefit will come from this to some of the towns where least has so far been accomplished in the way of highway improvement. In some instances, important connecting links had, perforce, been neglected because the towns had failed to appropriate their share of the money for the work, but the gasoline tax has made possible a partial solution of a problem that officials of the highway department had feared might not be solved for a long time.

MEASURES STUDENTS' BRAINS IN NEW WAY

Philadelphia.—Dr. Edwin W. Adams, chosen to succeed Dr. J. Eugene Baker as principal of the Norman School, measures the brains of students in "horsepower."

Following receipt of the announcement of his appointment, Dr. Adams, who during the war was an army psychologist, and used the "mental yardstick" in picking men for specialized jobs, said:

"The Philadelphia test, which I helped prepare, is for students applying for admission to the junior and senior high schools, and is based on the army alpha test. If the test is functioning properly you can determine the 'horsepower,' or mental capacity, of the pupil."

ROTARIANS IN BIG MEETING

Poland Springs, Me., Oct. 8—Development of international goodwill and establishment of peace among the people of the earth are among the objects for which the Rotary International will strive this year, Pres. Everett W. Hill of Oklahoma City declared in his address Tuesday at the 8th District Rotary Conclave luncheon. He said that Rotary has clubs in 1800 leading cities in 28 countries.

Other speakers included C. R. Perry, secretary of the international organization; Walter S. Wyman of Augusta, president of the Central Maine Power Co., and Edward E. Whiting, a Boston journalist.

Bangor, Bath, Houlton, Claremont and Concord provided the breakfast entertainment yesterday morning. East District Gov. Daniel F. Sullivan presided at the women's meeting, at which Mrs. Everett W. Hill talked on some of the difficulties of the wife of a Rotary president.

Carrying pink swagger sticks and yarl-colored baloons which were released after their entrance into the dining room the Portland club with 200 in line, followed by 50 from Portsmouth, Fort Fairfield and Keene, supervised the luncheon program, Mrs. Marion Harper Kuschke, mezzo-soprano, wife of a Portland Rotarian, was heard in two numbers, and A. T. L. Cummings, garbed as a Maine lumberjack, told several amusing stories in French-Canadian dialect. The Portland club presented President and Mrs. Hill with several gifts.

Field sports of various kinds occupied the afternoon. Dinner entertainment was in charge of Waterville, Skowhegan, Lebanon, Peabody and Nashua.

Chats with your GAS man

YOU can make a house out of four walls and a ceiling, but it takes more than that to make a home.

There must be happy hearts, little children, perhaps, and furnishings and equipment that please the eye and give a sense of security and comfort.

Homelike homes are generally well-equipped homes, with the heart of the home—the kitchen—provided with modern appliances using gas service, the clean, efficient, economical fuel.

To use old, worn-out equipment—range, water heater, room heater, etc.—is to turn your back on economy. Old appliances waste gas. In addition, they are eye sores.

October is an ideal month to modernize your home. Don't overlook the kitchen. You are going to spend a good many hours in it this winter. Make sure that they will be pleasant ones.

DR. D'NORMANDIE IS BURIED HERE

Funeral of Prominent Clergyman Held Yesterday at Roxbury, Mass.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Rev. James De Normandie, D. D. in the First Church in Roxbury of which he was minister emeritus. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Miles Hanson of the First Church, and he was assisted by Rev. William Wallace Fenn, D. D., professor of theology at Harvard University.

The service was attended largely by Unitarian ministers of Boston and friends of Dr. DeNormandie which he gained during his pastorate of twenty one years in this city and his term of service in Boston, which extended from 1883 to 1910, when he was made minister emeritus of the Roxbury parish. The elevated pulpit of the old edifice bore a cluster of gladioli and two clusters of chrysanthemums. Beneath it rested the casket, covered with yellow, pink and red roses, gladioli and carnations.

Pews at the front of the church were reserved for Dr. Robert L. DeNormandie of Boston, Philip DeNormandie of Milton and Charles L. and William J. DeNormandie of Lincoln, and their families; and for Unitarian ministers and representatives of Unitarian and other societies with which Dr. DeNormandie was identified. Several of these organizations were represented by wreaths and floral tributes which were sent by the South Parish of Portsmouth, the Unitarian Church of Lincoln, the trustees, masters and boys of the Roxbury Latin School, the Fellows Athaeneum of Roxbury, the Eliot Savings Bank and the Norfolk House Center.

The organist, Miss Margaret U. Franklin, played selections from the works of Mozart, Handel and Mendelssohn. Miss Ethel Woodman, contralto, sang three of the favorite hymns of Dr. DeNormandie: "God Moves in a Mysterious Way," "Acquaint Thee, Oh Spirit," and "It Singeth Low in Every Heart."

The ushers were Rev. Palfrey Perkins of Weston, Rev. Abbot Peterson of Brookline, Rev. William Safford Jones of this city, Rev. Charles E. Park, D. D., of the First Church, Boston, Rev. Harold Greene Arnold of West Roxbury, Gorham Rogers and Anselm L. Bacon.

Interment was in the family lot in the Harmony Grove cemetery in this city.

MARRIED TWELVE YEARS BEFORE BABY CAME

Gladly Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Louisville, Nebraska.—"I was married twelve years before my boy was born. I had a lot of female troubles and had been treated by a physician for them but they continued much the same. Then I read your advertisement in the newspapers and thought I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a good trial, for if it had helped others, why not me? I have taken 36 bottles of the medicine and am never without it in the house. My baby boy is three years old now and I sure am happy since I got relief from my troubles. When any one has troubles like mine, or any ways like mine, I am always glad to recommend the Vegetable Compound so that they will get the right kind of medicine."—Mrs. JOE NOVAK, Box 662, Louisville, Neb.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

At the park, games and races took place and a few threatened to take a swim in the chilly waters of Lake Winnipesaukee. Officers were elected during the day and other important matters taken up.

A delegation of 40 from Manchester greatly increased the attendance and assured the success of the event.

WANT SIGNS FOR BEEDY TAKEN DOWN

Kennebunk Chamber of Commerce Takes Action on Political Posters

Kennebunk, Me.,—Resolutions condemning Congressman Carroll L. Beedy for posting "unsightly" posters on the highways of the town reading: "Vote for Beedy" were passed at a meeting of the Kennebunk Chamber of Commerce and it was further voted that he be asked to have removed all such signs.

The attendance was small, but 45 members being present. The action is explained as not personal against Congressman Beedy, but rather in accordance with the policy of the town not to have its highways and fields defaced by posters and billboards.

Much amusement was caused when the action of the Chamber of Commerce became known, for the voters of the town, as well as the county gave Mr. Beedy a most complimentary vote at the recent state election, casting 827 votes for him as against 244 for Hon. William Ingraham of Portland, the Democratic candidate.

The resolutions passed read as follows:

Whereas, during the recent political campaign Congressman Beedy defaced the highways of the town of this county by posting a very large number of unsightly advertising cards reading, "Vote for Beedy," be it resolved, that the Kenebunk Chamber of Commerce hereby condemns such action.

Be it further resolved that Mr. Beedy be asked to have all such signs removed from the highways of the town of Kennebunk and that this resolution be published throughout the district.

F. R. Ferris, secretary of the Chamforward to Congressman Beedy a copy ber of Commerce, was instructed to of the resolutions.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE BELIEVED UNDER CONTROL

Houston, Tex., Oct. 9—An additional 1500 cattle were ordered destroyed in Texas's fight against the foot and mouth disease. It is feared they had been in contact with cattle previously killed. The total ordered destroyed was thus raised to 4500.

The situation has been brought so well in hand, however, J. E. Boog-Scott, chairman of the Texas Livestock and Sanitary commission, says that he has petitioned for a meeting at St. Louis, Mo., of representatives of all states quarantined against Texas, with a view towards having embargoes modified. Three week quarantines have been declared for extensive acres in all directions from the infected district, as an added precaution. Restrictions will be removed if no cases of the epizootic appear within that time.

STABLE BURNS IN EARLY MORNING

Passing Autoists Discover Blaze on Middle Street About Two O'clock

A large stable attached to the property of Charles H. Walker on Middle street was destroyed by a fire early this morning and gave the firemen a hard battle, they remaining on the scene for nearly three hours.

The origin of the blaze is a mystery as it started in an outbuilding at the extreme end of the set of buildings where there had been no fire and quickly communicated to the stable.

The fire was discovered by two automobilists from Portland, who were passing through. They immediately aroused the inmates of the house and rushing to the stable broke the lock on the door and succeeded in removing two automobiles from the burning building.

A still alarm was sent to the Central Fire station and the chemical apparatus responded, but the fire had gained such headway that at 2.15 a general alarm was sounded from box 65.

The firemen were somewhat handicapped as the blaze was considerable distance from the nearest hydrant, making it necessary to lay a long line of hose. The pump was put on but a small piece of rubber got in the hose of the pump and checked the flow of water. There was some report this morning that the water pressure was poor, but Chief William F. Woods stated that there was nothing the matter with the pressure.

The firemen did excellent work in preventing the spread of the flames to the other buildings on the property, especially in view of the start that the fire had obtained before being discovered."

The loss is estimated at between $5000 and $6000.
